No because I know I can stay many places

No, but when I get my own place, I know I'll make sure I'm ready to call it a real home.
 No, Housing has been ok
 Not at the moment
 Rent a house with minor child
 Single living in an apartment
 When I start college in Minneapolis
 I don't feel like I belong there, and I am not supposed to be there

Homeless with another adult and minor child
 I am due in may and need license, car, and home
 I have a steady job and apartment now, but mental issues put everything at risk
 I want to see my dad and grandparents

Have you ever been Homeless Before alone or with Family?

----	----

For like a day
I got kicked out once and slept under the bridge
I have been alone without my family when mom was at work
I have been homeless multiple times throughout High School
I have only been with my family With my family. When we moved to RW we stayed at the Women's Center

For about a year between my 17th and 18th birthday, I slept outside and in my car

Foster home. Nobody wanted a runaway.
Winters are when most people are homeless I have been homeless too many times to count. Growing up and alone.
I stayed at the shelter with my daughter
Most of my life
Evicted
Before I was adopted with a kind family, I lived with my brothers in a garage
I do not know really
